JOIN THE MOVEMENT TO END CHILDHOOD HUNGER IN MAINE!

Membership at Full Plates Full Potential

Full Plates Full Potential is a private-public collaborative network of nonprofit organizations, government agencies, private businesses, schools, child care providers and concerned citizens working together to end childhood hunger in Maine by identifying opportunities to increase awareness and participation in the USDA Child Nutrition Programs.

Members of Full Plates Full Potential work together by networking and advocating for increased participation in School Breakfast, Community Eligibility Provision (CEP), Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP), Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) as well as other efforts to make sure every child is well fed and given an equal opportunity to succeed in the classroom.

HELP TAKE COLLECTIVE ACTION BY BECOMING A MEMBER OF FULL PLATES FULL POTENTIAL!

I, _____, agree to join fellow FPPF members in the fight to end childhood hunger by:

- Attending FPPF membership meetings as able
- Participating in at least three voluntary actions each year
- Serving as an ambassador in my region. I will work with stakeholders in my town, county and district to identify opportunities to end childhood hunger in our area.

As a member of Full Plates Full Potential, I can collaborate by: (please mark one or more)

- Giving monetary donations that allow the group to award grant money to schools and other stakeholders across the state to help them implement best practice models to get Maine kids the food they need
- Participating in outreach events that promote the Full Plates Full Potential name, hosting a local meeting on Full Plates Full Potential efforts and even speaking at an action event
- Sharing information and promoting best practices with local school representatives and encouraging them to implement best practice models for their child nutrition programs in their school and district.
- Volunteering at one of our fundraising events by selling tickets or working at the event as a server or host.
- Organizing and convening public awareness/educational events in my region
- Collaborating with fundraising efforts by hosting an event in my region

I am most interested in collaborating with: (please mark one or more)
